Numerous ideas for plays, food, decorations for all kinds of celebrations with children.

Celebrating with kids – be it a birthday or summer party – can above all be enjoyable and doesn't necessarily have to be a time-consuming event.

In her new book, Tanja Berlin shows how celebrations can become real festivities for children and adults, using simple but nice ideas for decorations, plays, handicrafts and recipes.

From the content:

Planning a children's party . Preparations, invitations and more | Festive decorations | Delicacies for celebrations (25 recipes) | Beautiful play, craft and work ideas for different celebrations with children| Music at celebrations | Practical things at celebrations with children.

Kathrin Bender comes back with flowers from every walk into nature. After studying visual communication and spending many years in the art scene, she began to transform the picked plants into simple illustrations in pencil and ink. A small label for stamps and art prints became STUDIO KARAMELO, a design studio for botanical illustration and environmentally friendly stationery products.
