

Christa Ludwig

The Seventh Saga

Die Siebte Sage

543 p., reprint, paperback edition

ISBN 987-3-7725-2770-8

(from 12 years)

All rights available

Her name is Dshirah and she's a shepherd girl in a beautiful southern country. But she cannot live like others. She isn't allowed to have a girlfriend. Has to hide, escape. For if it becomes known what makes her different from the others, she can expect imminent death by a lion's throat. For Dshirah, this is the beginning of a dramatic escape and a desperate search for the lost and forgotten Seventh Saga.

„Christa Ludwig's magnificent and exciting novel is a real event.“

– Hits für Kids

„Incredible exciting novel for adolescents of 12 years and older. Recommended to everyone.“

– Dagmar Härter, ekz information service

Christa Ludwig, born in 1949 in Wolfhagen near Kassel, studied German and English language and literature. She has loved books at least since she was able to read, and she began writing herself at an early age. Since 1989 she has published books for children and young people.

